

Joseph Milton Smith

Obituary

Joseph Milton Smith
Feb. 27, 1925 ~ June 10, 2013

Our husband, father and grandfather passed away peacefully surrounded by his family at home in Draper, Utah.

He was born Feb. 27, 1925 to Archibald and Bertha Smith in Draper, Utah. He married his sweetheart Roma Smith on June 23, 1950 in the Salt Lake Temple. Service in the church was always important. He served five missions for the church, one as a young man to the Northern States mission and four with his wife, Salt Lake Temple Square, Alabama Birmingham, Salt Lake

Temple Hosting, and Kirtland Ohio missions.

He is survived by his wife, Roma; children, David (Ann) Smith, Robert (Li-Ling) Smith, Christine (Bruce) Westwood, Colleen (Curtis) Dahl, Carolyn (Rick) Haglund, Douglas (Sherri) Smith, Paul (Diane) Smith, Brad (Laura) Smith, and Connie (Troy) Groo, and foster daughter, Tomi (Ken) Day as well as 46 grandchildren and 42 great grandchildren and seven foster grandchildren. Also brothers and sisters, Clara (Russell) Stevenson, Lynn (Jean) Smith, Ray Smith, and Barbara (Virgil) Jenks.

Preceded in death by his parents, sister, Wilma (Vern) Richins, and brothers, Calvin (LaMar) Smith and Murray (Gayle) Smith as well as children, Joseph Michael Smith and Alan Thomas Smith, and three grandchildren.

If you would like, donations to the LDS Church Mission Fund in Milton's name would be appreciated.

Funeral services will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Monday, June 17, 2013 at the Draper Stake Center, 13085 South 300 East, Draper, Utah. Viewings will be held from 6-8 p.m. on Sunday evening at Goff Mortuary, 8090 S. State Street, Midvale, Utah, and one hour prior to the services, at the church. Interment, Draper City Cemetery. www.goffmortuary.com
