

Former Woods Cross Man Dies in Hospital In Bingham, Utah

Charles Eric Hogan, 51, dairy farmer of West Jordan, died at a Bingham hospital at 12 01 p m Monday following an operation. He had been in the hospital for one month. He was born in Woods Cross January 2, 1877.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Ada Ruby Hogan, nine sons and daughters: Glen C., Kenneth R., Harold R., Raymond E. and Donald I., and Alice Hogan and Mrs. Myrtle Bateman, West Jordan; Mrs. Elizabeth Barrett, Roosevelt; Mrs. Alta Wilson, Bingham.

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon in the West Jordan ward chapel and interment took place in the West Jordan cemetery.
